"The Church is back in the building"

For this is God, Our God forever and ever; He will be our guide Even to death. Ps 48:14

We need a guide. Yet never in my lifetime have we been given so much guidance, where to go and where not to go, how far apart to stand or sit when to wear a face covering and when we can go without, and all the guidance is led by science! And the guidance changes like the British weather!

O for a guide that knows the right way!

The Lord our God condescends to serve us as our guide. He knows the way, and He will pilot us along it till we reach our journey's end in peace. Surely we could have no better infallible direction.

Let's place ourselves absolutely under His guidance, and we will never miss our way. Let's make Him our God, and we shall find Him to be our guide.

If we follow His law we will not miss the right road of life, provided that we first learn to lean on Him in every step that we take.

Our comfort is, that as He is our God for ever and ever, He will never cease to be with us as our guide. "Even unto death" will He lead us, and then we shall dwell with Him eternally, and never leave His presence.

This promise of divine guidance involves life-long security: salvation at once, guidance right to our last hour, and then endless blessedness.

I'm so grateful that God found me in my youth and I have rejoiced in His salvation through middle life and now into old age I rest in Him.

Today let's look up for guidance before we trust ourselves to go out of the door.

THE LORD SAYS,
"I WILL GUIDE YOU
ALONG THE BEST PATHWAY FOR YOUR LIFE. I WILL ADVISE YOU AND WATCH OVER YOU."
PSALM 32 8

Re-starting monthly Communion

Starting on October 4th we shall be sharing Communion on the first Sunday of each month.

It will be a little different so that we can be Covid secure, but this will not distract from remembering What the Lord has done for us in securing our salvation.

The communion part of the service will be led by one person who will also distribute the elements

The individual portions of bread will be in their own tray and the glasses will be generously separated in their trays to prevent contact by anyone other than the person taking communion.

We fully understand if some people are uneasy about joining in with communion if this is the case please let the elements pass by

Living with loss following Bereavement Weekend Workshop

The living with loss weekend went well and all those who attended felt it to have been a worthwhile and helpful weekend.

Our Macmillan Coffee Morning had to be cancelled due to the Coronavirus restrictions on the numbers who could meet together.

We have collected for Macmillan at the end of September and should be able to send a donation which should equal last years total.

Unfortunately our Men's Breakfast has had to be cancelled again due to the maximum of 6 gathering socially it looks like it may be a while before we can get this up and running again .

Praying together at Cornerstone

Our Saturday morning Prayer meetings will be re-starting in November starting at 9.15 a.m. On the first Saturday of each month

We will meet until around 10.00 am for around 45 minutes. If ever there was a need for God's people to get together to plead for our Nation and the wider world it is now

God is looking for people who want to be serious about their faith and their commitment to seeing people young and old saved and brought into His family in these desperate days
