

Living between the glorious Bookends

Rev 22:13

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

There are lots of things that we don't understand, and certain things that we find hard to square with what we believe about God, and what "oughta-be"

But this we do know and can rest in and trust. You get the first "Word" and the Last "Word" on everything.

We are not living between bookends of chance and possibilities. We are living right between the most glorious of bookends - the bookends of the garden of Eden and the world of the New Heaven and the New Earth, and Between those two book ends almighty God who made all things and the one who is making all things New - The Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

God is not going to show up at the end of history just to clean up the mess we've made of His creation He will bring in the perfection of all things planned before this world began. Until that glorious day comes, may you know the peace of God ruling in your hearts, may His beauty fuel your worship and His love shrink your fears. And may His joy be your strength.

As we look forward to the return of the Lord Jesus may that thought determine our investments, because life is so short and God is so Good that it makes all the gospel-sense in the world and eternity, that we'd invest the rest of our days in serving , You and not ourselves.
